

Joseph Perrier Champagne Dinner
An evening with Martin Gamman M.W.
Friday 26th March 2010

Family run for four generations and now led by the delightful Jean-Claude Fourmon, this Grande Marque house was founded in 1825 in Châlons en Champagne, where it has over 3km of cellars carved out of the chalk hillside.

The house has owns 20 hectares of vineyards in Cumières in the heart of Champagne and long standing contracts for the supply of grapes with some of the finest Growers in the region.

Martin Gamman has worked in the UK wine trade for over 20 years and is a Master of Wine.

Martin joined Joseph Perrier in 2008 as Export Manager for the United Kingdom and Ireland. This newly created role reflects the importance of these markets to Joseph Perrier.

Canapés

Joseph Perrier Cuvée Royale Brut NV

SMOKED SPRING LAMB

glazed pickled beetroot

Joseph Perrier Vintage 1999

FILLET OF SEABASS

vanilla butter viniagrette

Joseph Perrier Cuvée Royale Blanc de Blancs NV

Saint Marcellin, Langres AOC, la tradition

Joseph Perrier Rosé NV

PEAR TARTE TATIN

Joseph Perrier Demi-Sec NV

Coffee

Head Chef ~ Philip Hall

Menu ~ £45.00 inclusive

Menus and wines may change without notice, although unlikely.

THE ELVETHAM

Hartley Wintney · Hampshire · RG27 8AR

+44 (0)1252 844 871

enq@elvethamhotel.co.uk www.elvethamhotel.co.uk